FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Chicago Philharmonic & Cirque de la Symphonie
Join Forces for Chicago Debut

Chicago, IL – (April 15, 2016) The Chicago Philharmonic partners with Cirque de la Symphonie on Saturday, May 28, 2016 at 7:30 P.M. to present a performance pairing beloved orchestral masterpieces with awe-inspiring cirque choreography. The Memorial Day Weekend performance at Harris Theater marks the globetrotting Cirque de la Symphonie’s Chicago debut as well as the Chicago Philharmonic’s first self-presented performance within Chicago city limits.

Cirque de la Symphonie’s cast of Olympians and world-record-holders includes aerial flyers, acrobats, contortionists, dancers, and jugglers. The troupe performs exclusively with orchestras and has been met with sold-out crowds at venues from the Kennedy Center to the Sydney Opera House.

Musical selections will include Tchaikovsky’s Swan Lake, Bizet’s Carmen, Khachaturian’s Gayaneh, and more as the cirque performs on stage with the orchestra.

The performance will be the first in the Chicago Philharmonic’s new residency at the Harris Theater. The orchestra has been presenting a symphonic series in Evanston since its inception 26 years ago and has regularly collaborated in Chicago with other organizations such as the Joffrey Ballet and Salute to Vienna. However, this concert will be a milestone in that it is the orchestra’s first self-presented concert in the city of Chicago. Additional concerts at the Harris Theater have already been announced for the 2016-17 season.

About The Chicago Philharmonic Society

The Chicago Philharmonic Society is a collaboration of over 200 of the highest-level classical musicians performing in the Chicago metropolitan area. Governed under a groundbreaking structure of musician leadership, the Society presents concerts at venues throughout the Chicago area that cover the full spectrum of classical music, from Bach to Britten and beyond. The Society’s orchestra, known simply as the Chicago Philharmonic, has been called “one of the country’s finest symphonic orchestras” (Chicago Tribune), and its unique chamber music ensembles, which perform as the Chicago Philharmonic Chamber Players (cp²), draw from its vast pool of versatile musicians. The Society’s outreach programs connect Chicago-area youth to classical music and provide performance opportunities for members of the community. Founded 26 years ago by principal musicians from the Lyric Opera Orchestra, the Chicago Philharmonic currently serves as the official orchestra of the Joffrey Ballet, continues its 21-year association with the Ravinia Festival, and presents symphonic concerts in Evanston and, beginning in May 2016, at the Harris Theater.
